Precious Lord, take my hand
Lead me on, let me stand
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn
Through the storm, through the night
Lead me on to the light
Take my hand precious Lord, lead me

And the day is past and gone
At the river I stand
Guide my feet, hold my hand
Take my hand precious Lord, lead me

When my light is almost gone
Hear my cry, hear my call
Hold my hand lest I fall

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
Where there is injury your pardon, Lord;
And where there's doubt true faith in you.
Refrain:
Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope;
Where there is darkness, only light;
And where there's sadness, ever joy.
Refrain
Make me a channel of your peace.

Recessional Hymn: His Eye is on the Sparrow

Why should I feel discouraged, why should the shadows come,
Why should my heart be lonely, and long
for heaven and home,
When Jesus is my portion? My constant friend is He

"Let not your heart be troubled," His tender word I hear,
And resting on His goodness, I lose
my doubts and fears;
Though by the path He leadeth, but one step I may see;

R: His eye is on the sparrow, and I know
He watches me; His eye is on the sparrow,
and I know He watches me.

R: His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me; His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me.

I sing because I'm happy,
I sing because I'm free,
For His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me

I sing because I'm happy,
I sing because I'm free,
For His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,*

*But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;*

*For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.*

- Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Then he got into the boat and his disciples followed him. Suddenly a furious storm came up on the lake, so that the waves swept over the boat. But Jesus was sleeping. The disciples went and woke him, saying, "Lord, save us! We're going to drown!" He replied, "You of little faith, why are you so afraid?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the waves, and it was completely calm.

1st Reading: Wisdom 3: 1-6, 9

The souls of the just are in the hands of God

A Reading from the Book of Wisdom
The souls of the just are in the hand of God,
and no torment shall touch them.
Because God tried them and found them worthy.
As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings
God took them to Himself.
Those who trust in God shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with God in love: because grace and mercy are with God's holy ones, and God's care is with the elect.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

Shepherd Me, O God, beyond my wants, Beyond my fears, from death into life

2nd Reading: Romans 8:31-35, 37-39

If God is for us, who can be against us?

Brothers and sisters:

If God is for us, who can be against us?
He did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all,
will he not also give us everything else along with him?
Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?
It is God who acquits us. Who will condemn?
It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised,
who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.
For I am convinced that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

Growing up in Our Lady of Lourdes Paris in Bushwick, Brooklyn, Maggie could not help but develop a deep love for and dedication to Mary under this title. We are certain that Our Lady of Lourdes was there to greet our Mom and bring her to Jesus. We know that both Mary and Mom are praying for us all.

Our mother had an incredibly strong faith in God. She professed great devotion to many saints, especially to our Blessed Mother under the title of Our Lady of Pompeii/Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Mom took care Dad for more than 50 years and for her kids and extended family for almost as many. We are who we are because of Mom and we will love, honor and miss her for the remainder of our lives. We pray for and with her always just as we know she will be praying for and watching over all of us. Mom always loved when she spotted a cardinal, especially if it were in the yard or near the house, certain it was a particular relative or friend coming for a visit. Red cardinal birds are said to be symbols of upholding faith in spite of the rough times that pass through your life. They press the need to sticking to God even in despair.

When you see a cardinal, they say, an angel is near. Cardinals are thought to be spiritual messengers of our departed loved ones, so if you should see one near you, smile and wave and know that Mom has come to say hello.

Placing of the Pall

Entrance Procession: Precious Lord Take My Hand

Precious Lord, take my hand	When the darkness appears
Lead me on, let me stand	and the night draws near
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn	And the day is past and gone
Through the storm, through the night	At the river I stand
Lead me on to the light	Guide my feet, hold my hand
Take my hand precious Lord, lead me	Take my hand precious Lord, lead me
Home	Home

When my way grows dreary precious Lord	Precious Lord, take my hand
linger near	Lead me on, let me stand
When my light is almost gone	I am tired, I am weak, I am worn
Hear my cry, hear my call	Through the storm, through the night
Hold my hand lest I fall	Lead me on to the light
Take my hand precious Lord, lead me	Take my hand precious Lord, lead me
Home	Home

Offertory: Make Me a Channel of Your Peace/ Prayer of St. Francis

Make me a channel of your peace.	Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love;	Where there's despair in life let me bring hope;
Where there is injury your pardon, Lord;	Where there is darkness, only light;
And where there's doubt true faith in you.	And where there's sadness, ever joy.
Refrain:	Refrain
Oh, Master grant that I may never seek	Make me a channel of your peace.
So much to be consoled as to console;	It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
To be understood as to understand;	In giving to all men that we receive;
To be loved as to love with all my soul.	And in dying that we're born to eternal life. Refrain

Final Commendation

Recessional Hymn: His Eye is on the Sparrow

Why should I feel discouraged, why should the shadows come,	"Let not your heart be troubled," His tender word I hear,
Why should my heart be lonely, and long for heaven and home,	And resting on His goodness, I lose my doubts and fears;
When Jesus is my portion? My constant friend is He	Though by the path He leadeth, but one step I may see;

R: His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me; His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me.

R: His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me; His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me.

I sing because I'm happy,
I sing because I'm free,
For His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me

I sing because I'm happy,
I sing because I'm free,
For His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me
